DETAILED ACTION

Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1. In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

- Group I: claims 1-4, drawn to a process;
- Group II: claims 5, 7-9, and 11, drawn to an apparatus;
- Group III: claims 6 and 10, drawn to an apparatus.

2. As set forth in Rule 13.1 of the Patent Cooperation Treaty (PCT), "the international application shall relate to one invention only or to a group of inventions so linked as to form a single general inventive concept." Moreover, as stated in PCT Rule 13.2, "where a group of inventions is claimed in one and the same international application, the requirement of unity of invention referred to in Rule 13.1 shall be fulfilled only when there is a technical relationship among those inventions involving one or more of the same or corresponding special technical features." Furthermore, Rule 13.2 defines "special technical features" as "those technical features that define a contribution which each of the claimed inventions, considered as a whole, makes over the prior art."

Art Unit: 1612

3. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons:

Claims 1-4 relate to a method of extracting chemical species from pregnant animal's urine comprising the use of adsorber materials of a specific particle size and the washing the adsorber material with a buffer solution having a specific pH. This extraction method constitutes a first technical feature. Claims 5, 7-9, and 11 relate to an apparatus for the collection of chemical species from pregnant animal's urine using a general adsorbent material for said chemical species. While this apparatus constitutes a second technical feature, it is not specifically designed for carrying out the process of claims 1-4; thus, the technical feature contributed by the apparatus does not correspond to that made by the process of claims 1-4. Likewise, claims 6 and 10 relate to an apparatus for the collection of chemical species from pregnant animal's urine using an organic solvent for said chemical species. The apparatus for collection of chemical species using an organic solvent is a third special technical feature, which is also not specifically designed for carrying out the process of claims 1-4; thus, the technical feature contributed by the second apparatus of claims 6-10 does not correspond to that made by the process of claims 1-4. Since Groups I-III do not share a special technical feature, the claims are not so linked within the meaning of PCT Rule 13.2 so as to form a single inventive concept, and unity between Groups I-III is broken.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

5. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention may be made with or without traverse. To reserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse. Traversal must be presented at the time of election in order to be considered timely. Failure to timely traverse the requirement will result in the loss of right to petition under 37 CFR 1.144. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable on the elected invention.

If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which of these claims are readable upon the elected invention.

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the inventions are not patentably distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the inventions to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) of the other invention.
